Will the Minister of HOUSING AND URBAN POVERTY ALLEVIATION be pleased to state:

(a) the number of States including Uttar Pradesh where the centrally sponsored Integrated City Development Planning(ICDP) has been implemented;

(b) whether the families living below the poverty lines in urban areas are sanctioned the grants-in-aid of Rs. 1 lakh 81 thousand under this scheme and whether the house constructed with the said amount is sufficient for a family to live in;

(c) whether the Government proposes to increase the said amount to Rs. 4 lakh in view of the rise in the construction cost; and

(d) if so, the time by which it is likely to be done?

Answer

THE MINISTER OF HOUSING & URBAN POVERTY ALLEVIATION
(SHRI M. VENKAIH NAIDU)

(a)to (d): It has been reported that City Development Plans (CDP) have been prepared for 27 States and 3 UTs including Uttar Pradesh. The responsibility of the implementation of CDP, however, lies with the State Governments.
